CONFERREES SNARLING

Another Day of Idle Talk on the Tariff Bill.

SENATORS PREVENT COMPROMISE.

The House Conferrees Proposed to Place Coal on the Free List, but This the Senators Refused, and the Sugar Schedule Is Again Revived.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Democratic tariff conference had expected to be able to announce an agreement yesterday. Instead of reaching any definite conclusion the day closed with the bill in quite as uncertain a state as ever before in its history, with the situation in no wise improved, with the feeling between the friends of the senate bill and the house bill intensified instead of allayed, and with no one prepared to say what the outcome would be or when the end would be reached. It was apparent at the very beginning of the conference that those who had come to the conclusion at the adjournment of Wednesday's session that an agreement would be arrived at yesterday had not taken sufficiently into account the possibility of a misunderstanding or a change of mind.

This discovery was made when the senate conferrees prepared to go on with the bill upon the basis of a duty of forty cents per ton on coal and free iron ore, whereupon the house conferrees announced their unwillingness to accept this arrangement, and stated that they would insist upon a reversal of these terms, with coal free and iron ore dutiable, if either was to be, as they understood that they were to have a choice between the two. The avowal of this position produced immediate confusion, and led to an exchange of remarks which were not altogether polite. The senate conferrees thereupon decided to report the state of affairs to the conservative senators, and when the conferrees adjourned called Senators Gorman, Brice, Smith and Murphy into consultation. The whole situation was surrendered to them. They were not only made acquainted with the denial of the house conferrees for free coal, but were also given to understand that other material concessions would be expected by the house conferrees along the entire line of the bill, including woolens, cottons, metals, glass and earthenware.

They decided upon an emphatic negative in reply to the proposition, saying that if the body of the bill was not preserved virtually as it passed the senate the report of the conference when made would not be accepted by the senate. Senator Brice proposed an innovation in the shape of a proposition that the house conferrees be given an opportunity to secure free sugar. The senate conferrees adopted the suggestion of Mr. Brice and presented the proposition to the afternoon session of the joint conference. It is understood that the proposition created some surprise on the part of the house members, who at first opposed a disposition to accept, but after considerable discussion of the merits of this feature of the proposition and of the other features, involving the acceptance of the other senate amendments, declined to vouchsafe an answer without further consideration. The question was therefore undisposed of when the conference adjourned for the day.

The Republican senators were also in consultation with the senatorial tariff conferrees during the day, and it is understood have given notice that if there is material change in the more important schedules relating to manufactured articles they will resist the immediate disposition of the committee's report when made, and have stated that in that event more tariff oratory may be expected.

The house conferrees have their side of the situation to tell. Chairman Wilson authorized the statement at the close of the conference that the reports current through the day to the effect that President Cleveland had interfered with the informal agreement reached Wednesday night were wholly unwarranted and untrue. Mr. Wilson said that the executive was carefully refraining from exerting any influence on the conferrees, and was leaving the members to shape their courses as they saw fit. The chairman called on the president occasionally, he said, but it was not very often, and at these times Mr. Cleveland showed a delicacy in saying or doing anything which could be construed as an exertion of executive or administration influence on the work of the workers.

As to the misunderstandings throughout the day, the house men understood when the conference adjourned Wednesday night that the senators had conceded that either iron ore or coal was to go on the free list, the other remaining on the dutiable list. While the house men had given no definite announcement of their choice between the two items, it was generally understood that they would prefer to have iron ore on the free list. When, however, they entered the conference yesterday they had concluded among themselves that it would be preferable to have coal on the free list, leaving iron ore dutiable at forty cents a ton. This conclusion was definitely announced to the senators, but the house men were surprised to find that the willingness to concede them the choice was somewhat abated. What had caused the change was not made clear, but in discussing it the house conferrees said with no little feeling that it was clearly due to the influence of those interested in the sugar schedule, and was apparently another effort to involve the informal agreement on sugar reached last week.

Whether the difficulty will be solved today or will be declared off entirely is not clear to the house conferrees. In the event of an understanding on coal and iron today the house conferrees expressed the hope that the Republican conferrees might be called in this evening or tomorrow, although the differences developed yesterday on coal and iron, as well as on some other schedules, make the chances of a full conference less hopeful today than they were Wednesday night.

THE STRIKE AT OMAHA

A Workman Brutally Beaten and Kicked by Striking Butchers.

OMAHA, Aug. 10.—Two hundred more deputy sheriffs were added to the number of guards at the packing houses last evening. They were armed with buggy spokes, no firearms being allowed. The strikers refused to withdraw their picket line at the approach of the officers, and, while avoiding a collision, paid little attention to the deputies. While the situation is quite strained, it appears on the surface to be more quiet than on Wednesday. A number of men did not show up for work yesterday, and the force at many houses was lighter than on any day since the strike began.

The packers complain that they cannot get a warrant served on any man after complaints have been made. Last night as a workman was passing from the packing house several of the strikers took after him shouting "scab" and other vile names. First one striker would hit the man and then another. He was knocked down and kicked. He managed to defend himself so as to get away. After he was beaten and chased for two blocks the police finally got between the mob and the man and stopped the assault. Captain Connell held a revolver in each hand and swore he would shoot the first man who continued the fight. The police escorted the man home. Later he said that he would continue at work, and that it meant death to the man who assaulted him while he was minding his own business.

ONE KILLED, EIGHT INJURED.

Fatal Fall of a Scaffold in Jersey City's New City Hall.

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 10.—A scaffold upon which eight men were working yesterday afternoon broke down in one of the interior walls of the new city hall. The men fell to the cellar. They broke through the first floor, which is fire proof. A fire alarm was rung and the men were quickly extricated and sent to the city hospital. Thomas Dayer was fatally bruised, and died fifteen minutes after the accident.

The injured are, Frank Fields, bricklayer, hurt internally; Patrick Kennedy, bricklayer, hurt about the head, unconscious; Peter Sullivan, bricklayer, bruised internally; John Jensen, cut about the head; Martin Flemming, injuries about the head and chest; Henry Delmarrin, crushed by the falling wall.

Disastrous Cave In at Scranton.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—A mine underlying part of the western portion of this city caved in yesterday for a distance of three blocks, effecting property to the extent of $370,000. The cave in was caused by robbing the pillars which support the roofs of the mines. For some time past men have been taking out these supports in the Diamond breaker of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. Suddenly, with scarcely a moment's warning, a large section of the roof fell, carrying the upper surface with it. The property extending from the corner of Fellows and Eighth streets sank from one inch to four feet. Twenty-eight houses were wrecked.

Britannia's Eleventh Victory.

COWES, Aug. 10.—Although six yachts were entered for the Cowes town prize yesterday only the Britannia and Vigilant participated. The race, which was an uninteresting one, was won by the Britannia, that yacht defeating her competitor by 2 min., 12 sec. This was the Britannia's eleventh victory over the Vigilant. The Vigilant has won five races from the English cutter. Mr. Gould has arranged with the Prince of Wales for a special race for next Monday, distance thirty miles.

Died in a Prison Cell.

ROME, Aug. 10.—Signor Cuciniello, director of the Rome branch of the Bank of Naples, died in prison yesterday. He was implicated in the recent bank scandals, and was serving a sentence of ten years. He and his confederates had robbed the bank of $400,000. Though 70 years of age, and highly respected, he was leading the life of a libertine, and plundering the bank to meet expenses. Cashier Alesandro is serving a sentence of six years and eight months for complicity.

Robbed by Masked Burglars.

WELLERSBURG, Pa., Aug. 10.—During the night the house of Henry Baker, residing two miles from this village, was entered by four masked men. After covering the occupants with revolvers, and commanding silence under penalty of death, the robbers secured $30 and a gold watch, and made their escape.

Coxeyites Must Leave Virginia.

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 10.—Governor O'Ferrall has served notice on the leaders of the Coxeyites, about 500 of whom are encamped at Rosslyn, Va., just opposite Washington, that they must abandon the state. The Coxeyites assert that they will not leave camp voluntarily, though they will not resist arrest.

FIGHTING THE HEALTH OFFICERS

A Mob of Two Thousand Attacks the Van in Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 10.—The rebellion against the enforcement of sanitary laws bearing on smallpox cases has assumed alarming proportions in this city. The health department van, with a crew of six officers, went to the house of Ferdinand J. Butler, at 736 Muskego avenue, where a child was suffering from the disease.

Inside of ten minutes there was a mob of fully 2,000 persons on the scene. There were loud cries and threats against the health department officers, and a few stones were thrown. Before much damage could be done, however, a squad of city police arrived. The health officers broke in the door and soon reappeared with the sick child, which was placed in the van. The crowd now became furious, and as the van started up made a determined charge. The police would have been overpowered had not a patrol wagon filled with officers arrived.

Guarded by the police, the van passed through the mob and started for the hospital, pursued by the crowd. The patient was placed in the hospital before the leaders of the mob got there, but the rioters threatened to overturn the van. The police finally succeeded in getting to the health officers and their conveyance safely back through the crowd.

After a fight in which thirty men were injured, the police last night dispersed a meeting called to protest against the action of the health officers.

Scranton Baseballists on Strike.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 10.—There was a sympathetic strike among the members of the Scranton baseball team yesterday, and the men refused to go to the park and play the scheduled game with Springfield. The trouble was occasioned by the removal of Mart Swift, who managed the Scranton Pennsylvania State League team, and whose resignation was requested by the board of directors of the Scranton Baseball association Wednesday evening. Swift induced Meesey, Phelan, Wetzel, Westlake, Staltz and Pitcher Flanaghan to accompany him to Carbondale, where he is to manage the club that will take the place of Allentown in the State League. Cathers, Rogers and Patchen are the only old players who refused to go with Swift.

Trolley Cars in Collision.

HAZLETON, Pa., Aug. 10.—Twenty-five people were injured, some of them seriously, in a collision between two trolley cars on the Electric road, near Oakdale. When the collision occurred the cars were going at a high rate of speed, in opposite directions. The passengers in the car bound for this city, which was an open one, saw the approach of danger and jumped for their lives, falling among the rocks that lined the road. The cars came together with a terrific crash, throwing those who remained in them to the floor, and splintered the front of the cars into kindling wood. Not a single passenger escaped injury.

Destructive Fire in an Illinois Town.

CHAMPAGNE, Ills., Aug. 10.—The business portion of Gilford, a thriving town in the northeast part of the county, was almost entirely destroyed by fire yesterday. Twenty-one business houses, two grain elevators, the Illinois Central depot, extensive grain cribs and 50,000 bushels of grain were destroyed. Only two business houses in the town remain. The loss will amount to $200,000.

Another Gasoline Stove Victim.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Aug. 10.—Mrs. Mary White was brought to the Chester County hospital, suffering from what promise to be fatal burns. She was cook in the household of James Jackson, at New London, and a gasoline stove exploded, setting fire to her clothing. She is the second victim of gasoline stoves received at the hospital here within a fortnight.

Colored Excursionists Jump Overboard.

KEOKUK, Ia., Aug. 10.—The steamer Park Bluff, returning to Quincy with 400 colored excursionists, struck a large rock and began to sink. Owing to the low stage of water it could not entirely fill, but a panic resulted and many of the excursionists jumped into the stream. The water is not over four feet deep, however, and all were taken ashore in safety.

Maryland Prohibition Nominees.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 10.—The state Prohibition convention at Glyndon Park nominated congressional candidates as follows: Second district, J. D. Parker, Baltimore; Fifth district, Colonel J. C. Lee, of Prince George's county, for the short term and William H. Silk, of Anne Arundel, for the long term; Sixth district, Albert E. Shoemaker, Montgomery county.

THE KOLBITES' CLAIM.

They Issue an Address to the People of Alabama.

CHARGES OF FRAUD REITERATED.

"No Doubt That the Ticket Headed by Captain Kolb Has been Elected," They Say, and Kolb Asserts That He Will Organize a Dual State Government.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 10.—The conference of Kolb leaders give out a statement, which says: "The election returns, as reported by the press and supporters of the ticket headed by Colonel Oates, show a repetition of the election frauds of 1892, with less pretext and absolutely without the least semblance of justification, in order to overcome legitimate majorities for our ticket in forty-one white counties. These false and fraudulent majorities aggregate 34,000 from fifteen black belt counties. In 1892 these same black belt counties aggregated majorities of 28,669.

"In addition to this the frauds that have been perpetrated in white counties is not less than 15,000. With the consummation of these has also been brought forth four or five fraudulent elections of senators and eleven or twelve fraudulent elections of representatives in the general assembly. This outrageous action, intensified by the impudence and affrontery with which it has been done, displayed a disregard of public sentiment in such a brazen faced manner that it seems to have been intended to add insult to injury.

"The law under which the election of 1892 was held, which was devised to assure the prevention of fraud with ease, facility and safety, has been amended by the Sayre law, the purposes of which were to disfranchise illiterate voters and to assure the perpetration of greater frauds by the election just held, and has been known and intended by the usurper who exercises the function of governor, illustrated by his remark when he signed that bill. A contest law was promised to allay and prevent a popular uprising in 1892, to be broken in the most shameful manner, and the perfidy and treachery displayed was afterwards boasted of as a fine piece of legerdemain.

"We admonish our people not to accept promises nor pledges from those who have proven themselves recreant to every requirement of law, to every demand of honor, and to every exaction of duty. They demonstrated that they are enemies to liberty, and Republican institutions.

"The conditions in this state have reached a climax. There is no doubt that the state ticket headed by Captain Kolb has been elected. The alternative is presented of submission to wrong, insult and robbery or to assert the sovereign power, before which thrones totter, scepters fall and the outrages of tyrants cease. That alternative must meet a response from manhood or silent submission from those unworthy of citizenship. We do not advise fighting or lawlessness of any kind."

The statement recommends the holding of meetings on Thursday, the 23d of August, at the respective court houses, to act "upon this great crisis, and to insist that manhood, patriotism and love of liberty, which has always evoked prompt and decisive action from them, shall find expression in their course, that will be creditable to their revolutionary sires, and furnish a precedent in our history to which all will ever revert with pride and satisfaction. At the same time and place we would urge the organization of law and order leagues to uphold the supremacy of that greatest of all law and power —the sovereign will of a free people."

Kolb announces that he will go to Montgomery and organize a dual state government.

AN ALABAMA JUDGE IMPEACHED.

Charged with Abetting the Murder of Robert C. Ross.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 10.—The supreme court handed down its decision in the impeachment case of Circuit Court Judge Tally, of Jackson county.

Some months ago a man named Ross was killed at Stevenson, Ala., by two or more Skeltons, the cause being the ruin of their sister by Ross. When Ross attempted to get away from Scottsboro the Skeltons heard of it, pursued him and killed him before he could take the train at Stevenson.

The ground for impeachment proceedings against Tally, who is a brother-in-law of the Skeltons, was a telegram which he sent to the telegraph operator at Stevenson, directing the operator not to deliver a telegram to Ross from Ross' brother. This was held by those favoring impeachment to make Judge Tally a party to the killing, while Tally insisted that his telegram was for the purpose of preventing the waylaying and killing of Skeltons, as well as causing the arrest of Ross before the Skeltons arrived, so that trouble could be averted all around.

The opinion concludes, "And we are impelled to find that John B. Tally aided and abetted the murder of Robert C. Ross, and to adjudge that he is guilty of murder as charged. Judgment deposing him from office will be entered on the records of the court." Associate Justice Head dissented.

The impeachment of so distinguished a man as Judge Tally makes a profound impression. He was reported as an able judge, and had been unusually popular.

No Trouble at Bluefields.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The first official notice that the United States steamer Columbia has arrived at Bluefields came to the navy department in a telegram from Captain Sumner, brought to New Orleans by steamer from Bluefields. It contains an account of happenings there up to four days ago, and the encouraging report by Captain Sumner that he anticipates no serious trouble in the future. The captain says that he has landed a strong force which he intends to keep ashore as long as trouble is impending.

The Relay Bicycle Riders.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Aug. 10.—The Washington-Denver relay race reached Rosevills, Ills., at 5:40 p. m. yesterday, and passed Gladstone, Ills., at 6:30. The rider was delayed by Illinois sandy bottoms, reaching the end of the Burlington bridge at 7:45. George Prugh and Gus Jordan, for the Burlington club, took the message to Agneev Hill and passed a given point in Burlington City at 7:52 p. m. The relay reached Mount Pleasant at 10 p. m. It is now twenty-two hours ahead of schedule time.

Counterfeiters on Trial.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. —Alex Barter, Wash Hudson and Wilburn Haighler were tried yesterday on a charge of passing $5 notes that were raised to tens and twenties. Haighler proved his innocence. Hudson is a son-in-law of Barter, and it was admitted by both that Hudson received the notes on which arrests were made from Barter. Hudson was bound over in the sum of $300 to answer at court. Barter was bound over in $700, and in default of bond was committed to jail.

Protesting Against Patent Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Representative Childs, of Illinois, has presented a memorial in the house protesting against proposed patent legislation on the ground that it is in the interest of the American Bell Telephone company. The memorial is signed by Charles H. Aldrich, who was solicitor general under the last administration. He says the legislation proposed will prolong the life of the Bell company's monopoly for seventeen years.

The South's Abundant Crops.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 10.—The Manufacturer's Record says: "Taken as a whole, the southern crops will probably be larger this year than ever before. The corn crop is unprecedented. The outlook for cotton, based on acreage and present condition, indicates a crop of from 8,000,000 to 9,000,000 bales. The smaller crops have nearly all done well, thus giving the south the full measure of abundant crops of all kinds."

Will Fight Against Removal.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 10.—Shipping Commissioner Dryden, who was on Wednesday removed by Secretary Carlisle, said to a reporter yesterday: "I do not propose to leave this office without making a fight. If necessary I shall carry the case to the supreme court of the United States. I have always discharged the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the shipping men, and I will stay right here."

THE CHINESE EMPEROR

He Objects to the Control of the Dowager Empress.

LI HUNG CHANG NOT REDUCED.

The Report That He Had Been Disciplined Was Without Foundation—Chinese Government Guarantees Protection to Foreigners and Missionaries.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Times publishes a letter from Pekin which tells in detail of the emperor's chaffing against the leading strings of the dowager empress and of his constant struggle to take the government in his own hands. The writer says that the emperor's knowledge of English leads him to encourage long talks with foreign diplomats, with the result that the diplomatic service is becoming popular. His majesty has taken the matter of official appointments largely into his own hands, and is supporting in a great measure the grand council.

The emperor is very severe on cases of official wrongdoing. An instance of his severity is found in the case of a former minister to Washington. The minister, finding that punishment for his corruption while in the United States was inevitable, appealed for an appointment on

THE EMPEROR OF CHINA.

Li Hung Chang's staff. On a recent inspection tour the viceroy referred the application to the emperor. The latter found himself unable to refuse, but he insisted that the minister first pass a difficult literary examination, which he failed to do. The emperor then degraded him in the Han Lin academy, and stripped him of his official rank, reducing him four grades, from the red button to the white button. He was thus punished for crimes which were not alluded to in his sentence.

The correspondent of The Times at Tientsin declares that the report that the rank and privileges of the viceroy, Li Hung Chang, have been reduced by imperial command is entirely unfounded.

The report that the Chinese General Len was killed in a battle with Japanese at Yashan is also declared to be untrue. A further denial is made of the report that the Chinese steamer Kwangui has been sunk.

The English colony in Tientsin have signed a petition to the home government requesting that British gunboats be sent to that port to prevent panics.

The Chinese government has ordered all the authorities throughout the empire to protect foreigners and missionaries.

The emperor has directed that a levy be made on the various viceroys for a war tribute.

Negro Coke Workers to Strike.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 10.—The mass meeting of striking coke workers held here yesterday was one of the greatest demonstrations of the kind that that region has seen since the strike began. More than 3,000 men were in the procession which preceded the meeting. Among the speakers was Reuben Wilson, a negro, who came from Moyer. He stated that the southern negroes brought here to break the strike have organized a movement to lay down their tools tomorrow and demand an advance of wages.

Pullman Strikers Starving.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—The great Corliss engine in the Pullman shops was operated yesterday for the first time in three months. Two more departments were opened and about 950 men were at work. The strike leaders still hope for victory, and have sent telegrams to almost every labor organization in the country stating that the strike will be won if it can be continued awhile. The messages asked for money and stated that the strikers are starving.

The Officer Exonerated.

LA SALLE, Ills., Aug. 10.—The inquest over the remains of Anton Shurman, who was shot and fatally injured by a deputy sheriff while arresting Shurman's father on Wednesday, closed last evening. The verdict was to the effect that Shurman was killed by the officers while in the discharge of their duty, and that the shooting was justified by the conduct of Shurman in trying to kill the sheriff.

SAVANTS IN SCIENCE.

THEY WILL SOON DISCUSS ABSTRUSE PROBLEMS IN BROOKLYN.

Annual Meeting of the American Association For the Advancement of Science—Interesting Career of Dr. Daniel Garrison Brinton, President of the Association.

Scientists of high and low degree, large and small, short and tall, long headed, level headed, baldheaded and gray headed, are all headed toward Brooklyn just now, for the reason that on Aug. 15 the American Association For the Advancement of Science is to begin its annual session of nine days' duration in the City of Churches. Among the organizations invited to attend the session are the following named:

Geological Society of America, American Microscopical society, Society For the Promotion of Agricultural Science, Society For the Promotion of Engineering Education, Botanical club, Association of Economic Entomologists, American Chemical society, Association of State Weather Services, American Forestry association, Appalachian Mountain club, Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, Association of American Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations, Entomological club, American Geographical society, Torrey Botanical club of New York, New York Microscopical society, New York Academy of Sciences, Linnæn society of New York, New York Mineralogical society, New York Mathematical society, New York section of the American Chemical society, New York Entomological society. The most eminent scientists of England, France and Germany, including Professor Huxley, Sir Archibald Geikie and Sir John Lubbock, have also been asked to be present.

PRESIDENT DANIEL G. BRINTON.

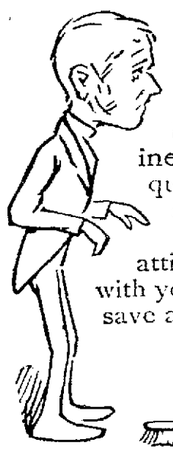
The American Association For the Advancement of Science has been in existence 43 years, and the researches of its members and its public annual deliberations have been of incalculable benefit to the cause of science. The president of the association is Daniel Garrison Brinton, the eminent ethnologist, who probably knows as much as any man living about the division of mankind into races, their origin, distribution and relations and the peculiarities which characterize them. President Brinton was born in Chester county, Pa., May 13, 1837. He was graduated at Yale in 1858 and at the Jefferson Medical college in 1861. After a year of travel in Europe he returned to America and entered the Federal army as acting assistant surgeon. In 1862 he was commissioned surgeon and served as surgeon in charge of the Second division, Eleventh corps. He saw about all that there was to see of the horrors of war at Chancellorsville, Gettysburg and other engagements, and in October of the same year was appointed medical director of his corps.

At the battle of Gettysburg he received a sunstroke and was disqualified from service. He soon became superintendent of hospitals at Quincy and Springfield, Ill., and remained on duty there until the close of the war, when he was, at his own request, honorably discharged. After the war he settled in Philadelphia, became the editor of a medical and scientific publication and has since been a frequent contributor to the columns of such journals.

Dr. Brinton has for many years been prominent as a student of and writer on American ethnology, and the subject has fascinated him ever since he was a student in college. In 1884 he was appointed professor of ethnology and archæology in the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, and for several years he has been president of the Numismatic and Antiquarian society of the Quaker City. In 1886 he was elected vice president of the American Association For the Advancement of Science, to preside over the section devoted to anthropology, and the same year had the honor of being the first American awarded the medal of the Societe Americaine de France for his numerous erudite works on American ethnology.

He has established a library and publishing house of aboriginal American literature for the purpose of placing within the reach of scholars authentic materials for the study of the languages and culture of the Indians of America. Each work is the production of a native mind and is printed in the original language. Dr. Brinton has also made valuable reports on his investigations of mounds, shell heaps, rock inscriptions and other evidences of the races that preceded the American Indian and has shed much light on these interesting mysteries of early life on this continent. The numerous books he has written on medical and ethnological subjects make quite a library in themselves.

It is believed that over 1,000 delegates will attend the sessions of the association in Brooklyn. They will find pleasure as well as profit awaiting them, for they will be entertained by excursions to Long Branch, Cold Spring Harbor and West Point.



No Wonder He Dreads It,

if his house is cleaned in the old-fashioned, tearing-up way. Why can't a man's wife use Pearline for cleaning house, and let him keep comfortable? That's all she needs—Pearline and water—to make it an easy thing (and a quick one,) both for herself and for everybody around her.

Everything in the house, from cellar to attic, can be cleaned best with Pearline. Besides, with your paint and wood-work and such things, you'll save a lot of wear that comes from useless scrubbing.

Send it Back Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE —Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, be honest—send it back. 410 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.

"America's Greatest Men and Women."

AMERICA'S GREATEST MEN AND WOMEN.

MR. WILSON TALKS.

MY Name is Wilson; I do an insurance business on LaSalle street, in Chicago Ill., and I live in Evanston, Ill. Evanston is what was originally a scattering population on a pretty point on Lake Michigan, esteemed years ago far from the city of Chicago, but now one of the varied towns which may go within it by vote of the population.

I am married and have a wife and one child. That child is a boy (I suppose I should feel the same solicitude if it was a girl), and I have a father's natural fancies as to what must be the best thing to give that child the right kind of intelligence, and so divert his course that he may succeed in life. I have studied a great deal upon the subject. My own experience would not be of great value, because I have succeeded only to the limit of the average man and am barely established; still, I own the house and lot upon which I live, and am feeling perfectly safe in meeting the exigencies of the year. I want the boy to take a broader view than I did, to be a bigger man in the world. I have studied how to teach him to do that, and he has done pretty well, as far as the preliminaries go. Now, I have thought over what I should say to him and have sometimes been puzzled. I could not very well tell him what to do. I wanted to tell him what I needed but what I did not learn myself when I was of his age, and what my father did not know how to tell me, or else was not thoughtful enough to do so. I wanted to tell him how to follow the example of those who have succeeded at the present time and under the circumstances which ordinarily affect a young man struggling in this Republic established on this comparatively new world to-day. I wanted to tell him just what he had better do to get along well, and to point out to him what had been done by the people who were successful at the present time.

Of course, the record of the people of any time past would not be of so much value, because circumstances must necessarily have been different when they were alive. I feel confident, though, that if I could learn, some way and somehow, what the people who are so successful to day have done and how they did it, I could give to my boy such advice as would make his own life at least as far removed from failure as justified by the natural ability he may possess.

I looked around for some authority which I might consult in order to give him the facts most essential with this idea of mine in mind, but I could find none until I discovered that a great publishing firm in Chicago had decided to bring out a book giving the photographs of all the people who are prominent in America to-day. Here was what I wanted. The book, as I have learned, is going to be published in 16 parts, 16 pages to each, with a recent photograph on each page of some active leading American man or woman of to-day, while underneath appears the story of that same person's life—the story telling what that person did, and how the ends attained were eventually accomplished. Here was what I wanted; here was what I needed in various ways; here was what I was certainly seeking in order to obtain the information with which to educate my boy and secure for him that knowledge which will give him a source of thought and make him prominent in the world.

I have the first sheets of this work. It is a graphic story of America's Greatest Men and Women, told in each instance on a single page underneath a photograph of recent date, which conveys to the eye an idea of what that person is. To me the photograph tells even more than the suggestive record beneath; and yet it is odd how in each instance the correct story corresponds with the expression upon the face which is reproduced in the portrait above. I do not know how the series will end. I know very little about this new feature of the newspaper people; I know nothing about the publishers and their expectations, but I do know this: that if the series so begun should be continued to its practical, ordinary good sense end—and I don't care whether that will include 200 or 700 of America's Greatest Men and Women, which is the title of the book—I do know this, that for the ordinary, active and alert business man—I will certainly say far more for the student or the literary man, or the politician or the statesman—for all these I will say it will be simply the most valuable and the most remarkable book produced in modern history. The wonder is that some one has not thought of it before. Yet no one seems to have done so since the days of Plutarch. Plutarch knew something. That shrewd old fellow knew that all who would get out of the drift, all who would accomplish great things, wanted to know every detail of the lives of those who had better luck or more courage or a broader brain than their fellows; but I am no authority on these points. I only know that there is produced a second Plutarch's Lives, that its biographies are shrewd, graphic and curt, and written without bias and without prejudice. I only know that there was a Plutarch—God bless the old fellow—and that there is this modern work.

This is the work I am going to give to my boy. I am going to make him read it thoroughly. The work is announced as consisting of 16 Parts, with 16 pages and 16 photographs in each part, and when bound, the whole series will make a great volume of 256 pages, the like of which has never been equaled. It is the story of the personal character of the men and women who are making the nation's history at this particular time. What a work this is! Do you imagine that I would miss it for my boy, or, incidentally, for myself?

POISON FROM PEACH TREES.

The Prussic Acid In the Leaves Killed a Flock of Sheep.

"Taking a drink of this cherry sirup," said a doctor as he quenched his thirst at a soda water fountain, "reminds me of a catastrophe we had out on our farm one summer. You think it strange that a drink of soda water should bring a farm incident into my mind. Well, it is peculiar, but every time I taste amygdalic acid, and this cherry is filled with it, I call to mind an incident which cost my father quite a sum of money. My father was a great sheepgrower and took pride in the high grade of stock he raised. He also had a great deal of the farm planted with peach trees, to which he devoted much of his time.

"One summer when I was a boy something went wrong with the trees, necessitating the cutting off of many of the branches. The branches were strewn all over the grass of the peach grove where the sheep were wont to rest in the shade. A short time after this my father lost nearly all his sheep within a day by what seemed to be the result of some poison. He could account for the wholesale slaughter of all the sheep dying with similar symptoms in no way except it was the work of some enemy. I concluded to find out what caused the sheep to die.

"It was my first work in diagnosing, and it became so interesting to me that it influenced me in choosing my profession later. I worked hard to find if the sheep had eaten anything in the shape of a poisonous weed, but failed to trace it to this cause. It suddenly came into my mind that the sheep that had been penned in another part of the farm and had not been in the peach grove were the only ones that had escaped. So I concluded that the poison must be in the peach orchard. I noted the branches of the peach trees which had been cut still lying upon the ground, and something told me that these branches held the secret. I called on a physician to get some information about drugs, for as a boy I knew nothing in the way of deadly things except the 'pizen vine' and other reputed noxious plants.

"I asked him if the peach branches could have poisoned the sheep. 'Why, certainly,' he replied. 'They could poison with the deadliest poison known. When a branch of a peach tree is fresh, the leaves contain what we call amygdalic acid, which of itself is not the best thing to take into the system. But let that branch lie in the hot sun, and the chemical action of the heat upon this comparatively harmless amygdalic acid transforms it into the most deadly poison known as hydrocyanic or prussic acid, so, my young friend, you have struck the cause of the death of your father's sheep. They have died of hydrocyanic acid poisoning.' From that time on I became interested in medicines until I graduated a full fledged doctor. I often look back upon the little incident which had a great influence in shaping my career. Now, you don't think the connection between a glass of cherry soda water and the killing of a lot of sheep so strained after all."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Ghost Story.

Here is a ghost story—one of a large class and therefore more likely to be veracious, especially as it first saw the light in a London paper. It has an appearance of strict and even narrow truthfulness. There was a certain Captain Blomberg, of some regiment unknown, on active service in America. Five or six of his brother officers, he being engaged on duty some miles away, were dining together. The door was opened, and Captain Blomberg appeared, to everybody's surprise. Without speaking, he walked in and sat down in a vacant chair. They all asked him how he came there.

To their great astonishment he made no reply. Then one of them said, rising angrily, "Why don't you speak?"

On this he rose and replied, "When you go back to London, take my compliments to the queen and tell her I died yesterday."

This said, he walked out of the room as he had come in. A few days afterward the news came that he had been killed in action on the very day and at the same hour of his appearance.

It is pleasing to record that the queen, on whose favor the gallant officer may have had some claims, did protect the son, who became chaplain in ordinary to his majesty, deputy clerk of the king's closet, canon residentiary of St. Paul's and vicar of St. Giles, Cripplegate.—New York Commercial.

Occupations of the French.

Some very interesting facts about France are quoted by one of the Paris papers. We are told that one-half of the population of France is dependent on agriculture for a living, one-quarter on industry, one-tenth on commerce, four-hundredths on liberal professions, and six-hundredths on incomes derived from funded property or stock. The number of land owners cultivating their own land is 9,176,000; bankers and merchants are set down at 789,000; manufacturers give employment to over 7,000,000; state functionaries form an army 805,000 strong, and there are 23,000 journalists and men of letters.—London Tablet.

Condensed Power.

She—Here I read in the paper that if the force employed by women in lacing their stays and buttoning the boots could be condensed it would more than suffice to drive all the machinery in the factories and the railway engines in the whole of Germany.

He—Good gracious! Why, then the concentrated power of their tongues would be capable of lifting the earth off its hinges!—Westfalischer Kurier.

Today the Best.

One of the illusions is that the present hour is not the critical, decisive hour. Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. No man has learned anything rightly until he knows that every day is doomsday.—Emerson.

WHEN YOU CAN'T EAT without that uncomfortable feeling of fullness or drowsiness afterward, then it's time to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They make digestion easy. Keep a vial of them in your vest-pocket, and take one after every hearty meal.

It's time to take them, too, whenever you "feel bilious." They're specific for biliousness. They act wonderfully upon the liver.

Chronic Nasal Catarrh.

N. M. HODGES, Esq., of Ledyetown, Rich Co., Utah, says: "I was suffering from chronic catarrh, and bought half-a-dozen bottles of your Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am happy to say I am permanently cured of that disease."

LEFT FOR DEAD AT BULL RUN.

Fought, Bled and Officially Died, but Is Running For Governor of Wisconsin.

Major William H. Upham, who was recently nominated for governor of Wisconsin by the Republicans, has had a most romantic career. He was born in Racine, Wis., May 3, 1841, and when only 20 years of age enlisted in the Belle City rifles, which organization was mustered in as Company F of the Second Wisconsin infantry. In his first skirmish at Bull Run Upham was shot through the left shoulder and lung and was left for dead on the field. Confederates who were burying the slain saw that he was still alive and sent him to Libby prison, where he was confined eight months, and where he gained important information, which was afterward personally communicated to President Lincoln.

MAJOR W. H. UPHAM.

Upham had long been mourned as dead, and when he returned home had the pleasure of reading his own obituary notices in the papers. President Lincoln appointed him as cadet at West Point, where he was graduated in 1866 and appointed second lieutenant in the Fifth artillery at Portress Monroe. During his service there he was guard officer over Jefferson Davis. In 1869 he resigned to devote himself to the lumber business. The following year he located in Marshfield, Wis., when the place was only a name, and in a few years made it a thriving lumber town.

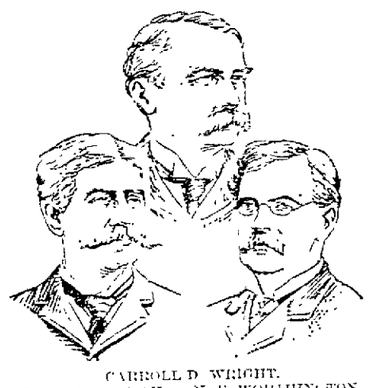
In 1887, when fire annihilated the entire town and the citizens were in despair, Upham procured the flag he had fought, bled and officially died under, planted it among the still hot embers of his factory and announced that he proposed to rebuild on a much larger scale. His example inspired his fellow townsmen, and Marshfield rose out of its ashes larger and more prosperous than ever. Mr. Upham is president of the First National bank of Marshfield, founder of the local G. A. R. post, a prominent member of the Loyal legion and was state commander of the G. A. R. in 1891.

THE STRIKE INVESTIGATORS.

Three Lawyers, Carroll D. Wright, John D Kernan and N. E. Worthington.

Three lawyers will investigate the recent strike in Chicago and report to President Cleveland under the act of congress approved June 13, 1888, which authorizes the commissioner of labor to investigate the causes of and facts relating to all controversies between employers and employed which may happen to interfere with the welfare of the people of the different states. Commissioner of Labor Carroll D. Wright, ex-officio chairman of the commission, was born in Dunbarton, N. H., 54 years ago and was studying law when the war began. He enlisted in the Fourteenth New Hampshire regiment and in 1864 became its colonel.

He was admitted to the bar in 1865, removed to Massachusetts and was elected to the state senate in 1871. During his term of office he was appointed chief of the state bureau of labor statistics, a position he held 15 years. When the national labor bureau was organized in 1884, Mr. Wright's wide fame as a statistician led to his appointment as chief of the office.



CARROLL D. WRIGHT. JOHN D. KERNAN. N. E. WORTHINGTON.

John D. Kernan, the second commissioner, is a New York man. He was born in Utica 50 years ago and is the eldest son of Francis Kernan, United States senator from New York from 1875 to 1881. He received a college education and studied law with his distinguished father. He has a large and lucrative practice and was appointed railroad commissioner of New York state when Cleveland was governor. He was chairman of the "antisnapper" convention which sent a Cleveland delegation to the Chicago convention in 1892.

The third commissioner, Judge Nicholas E. Worthington, was born in West Virginia 55 years ago, but has been a resident of Illinois since 1859. In 1855 he was graduated from Alleghany college, Meadville, Pa. He was then admitted to the bar and went west to grow up with the country. In 1882 he was elected to congress and two years later was re-elected. In 1886 he lost a third term, owing to the lack of 30 votes. He is a warm friend of Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson and nominated him for vice president. Two years ago he was elected judge of the circuit court at Peoria.

Water For Typhoid Patients.

In the Austrian village of Storbech all the inhabitants are chess players, and the game is taught in the public schools.

AFRAID OF CONSUMPTION.

People who lose flesh are in danger of consumption. Light weight is too often a sign of some "wasting disease," which gets its start from indigestion. Cure the indigestion and health is rapidly regained.

Paskola, the pre-digested food, prevents indigestion by its wonderful invigorating and nutritive properties. For loss of vigor, dull feelings, headaches, constipation, sour risings and other symptoms of dyspepsia it is a sovereign cure.

Paskola rapidly increases the weight. Under its nourishing power the hectic flush soon leaves the consumptive's cheek, the skin assumes the hue of health, the night sweats cease, the cough dies away, and the emaciation is lost under a coating of solid, warm and normal flesh.

Paskola is not a medicine but a food, pleasant to the taste and agreeable to the weakest stomach. Being pre-digested it is absorbed by the system the instant it is swallowed.

A pamphlet giving full particulars about Paskola will be sent on application to the Pre-digested Food Co., 30 Reade St., New York.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands can testify. Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but many, if not most, of the remedies in general use afford but temporary relief. A cure certainly cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes. Ely's Cream Balm, which is so highly commended, is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power, with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient. The druggists all sell it.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic electors of the State of New York are requested to unite in sending three alternate delegates from each Assembly District to a State Convention, to be held at Saratoga Springs on Tuesday, Sept 25th, 1894, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating in addition candidates to be voted for at the ensuing general election and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Hon. George M. Beebe, as proxy for Committeeman Charles Barnum, represented this district at yesterday's meeting of the Democratic State Committee.

Newspaper enterprise has reached its highest development in the reproduction of hieroglyphics from Chinese and Japanese tea chests which are published from day to day as the latest news from the Corean war, in purest Chinese and Japanese.

The Tariff bill is still hanging fire in the Conference Committee. Senators and Representatives say that the end is in sight, and that an agreement will be reached to day, but this assertion has been made so often that the public takes it with many grains of salt.

Statistics show that the anthracite coal production of Pennsylvania has increased for many years at the rate of 1,500,000 tons a year. During the same period the wages of miners have steadily decreased and the cost of coal has steadily increased. Despite all efforts to prevent combination the coal barons have evidently arranged and maintained a combination that works both ways, against the miners and against the consumers.

Mayor Schieren, Brooklyn's "reform" Mayor, has made up his mind that the schools of the city need reforming, and has appointed a committee of experienced educators, who are to examine the city's school system, compare its efficiency with that of other cities and recommend such changes as they think will improve the schools and give the best returns for the large sums annually expended for their maintenance.

One of the very worst political investments ever made was the contribution which the Massachusetts Republicans, through the Home Market Club of Boston, made to the expenses of Kolb's Populist-Republican campaign in Alabama. The overwhelming defeat of Kolb gives his northern backers no other returns for their investment in his campaign than the disgrace of being willing to endorse the wildest vagaries of Populism and Socialism in the hope of weakening the Democratic party and retaining for a little longer the bounties accorded them by McKinleyism.

The Democratic State Committee voted, yesterday, to hold the State Convention at Saratoga, Tuesday, Sept. 25th. A resolution, offered by Mayor Gilroy and unanimously adopted, declares it to be the sense of the committee that at least six days' public notice should be given of the holding of primaries for the election of delegates to the district conventions for the choice of State Convention delegates. This resolution, though not mandatory, will, it is believed, be recognized in all the districts of the State and though it will not blot out the remains of past feuds and differences, it will do away with any possibility of snapper and anti-snapper distinctions in the future

Kolb, the defeated Populist Republican candidate for Governor of Alabama, after being closeted with a number of his followers for thirty-six hours, has issued a proclamation to the people of the State, which is crazier than any document or utterance that ever emanated from the craziest Populist. After shrieking fraud and denouncing the election laws, the proclamation goes on to say that "the alternative is presented of submission to wrong, insult and robbery, or to assert the sovereign power before which thrones totter, sceptres fall and the outrages of tyrants cease." The people are told that "the man who will not fight for his liberty is unworthy of freedom" and are advised and urged to meet in the different counties, Aug. 23d, to organize law and order leagues to "uphold the supremacy of that greatest of all law and power, the sovereign will of a free people." So far as any interpretation has been put on this remarkable document it is that Kolb and his followers are planning to set up a government of their own, and backed by what they call the "sovereign power" will attempt to run a State government on their own account.

THE TARIFF MUDDLE

More Hopeless, To day, than Ever—Charges of Bad Faith on the Part of Senators—Quay Threatens to Speak for Forty Days If the Senate Bill Is Essentially Changed.

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The differences between the Democratic conferees on the tariff are as great as ever, to-day.

The Senate conferees offered the House members either free coal or free iron, with forty per cent. duty on remaining articles. When the House conferees accepted this and agreed on free coal the Senate withdrew its offer.

The House members say the Senate members are trifling with them and the House members have decided to maintain their position. They say the offers by the Senators are inspired by the Sugar Trust, with the hope of killing the bill.

If the bill is essentially changed from the shape in which it passed the Senate, Quay has declared his intention of attacking the bill in a speech that will, he says, take forty days to deliver. He adds that he will deliver the speech without regard to what his Senatorial associates may do. It is reported that the conferees will report a disagreement, to-day, and that a motion to discharge them will be made.

MR. HILL WANTS INFORMATION.

Offers a Resolution Asking the Conference Committee What Prevents Agreement—Acrimonious Debate—Mr Vest Tired of Infamous Lies.

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Hill offered a resolution requesting the conferees on the tariff bill to report to the Senate what progress they had made and what prevented immediate agreement.

Mr. Harris said the conferees had not agreed on coal, iron and sugar.

Mr. Gray objected to the consideration of the resolution on the ground that unanimous consent had not been given, and after an acrimonious discussion between Senators Hill, Gray, Vilas, Vest and others, the motion went over.

In the debate, Mr. Vest declared he was tired of the infamous lies circulated about the Democratic conferees and when the resolution came up, to-morrow, he would have something to say about the conferences.

TRAIN WRECKERS' DEADLY WORK

Eevlen Killed and Four Injured in a Wreck on the Rock Island—Citizens of Enid, O. T., Suspected of the Crime—Slowly Roasted to Death While Fast In the Wreckage.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 10.—It is now believed that the holocaust caused by a Rock Island train going through a trestle last night was the work of train wreckers.

They are believed to be citizens of Enid, O. T., who, incensed at the refusal of the Rock Island to stop at that place, took this means of revenge. The rails on the trestle are found to have been loosened.

The killed numbered eleven and the injured four. Some of those who lost their lives were burned in the wreck, which, together with the trestle, caught fire from the live coals of the engine.

The scene was heartrending. Some of those fast in the wreck while being slowly roasted begged piteously to be saved for the sake of their wives and children, but the survivors were powerless to hel them.

WAALKILLS AT ELLENVILLE.

Warmly Greeted and Handsomely Entertained by Firemen and Citizens of Ellenville.

Waalkill Engine Co. and invited guests arrived at Ellenville in good season, yesterday morning, without mishap or delay. They were met at the depot by Pioneer Engine Co. and a band, and were marched to the Mitchell House, where at 11:30 a good dinner was served. After dinner the four Ellenville companies and the Waalkills formed in line and marched to Pine Grove, where the visitors were given a hearty welcome by Chief Engineer Case, who tendered the freedom of the village to the Middletown party.

Chief Engineer Thorpe responded in behalf of the visitors and then introduced the chaplain, Rev. David Evans, who made a brief speech. An address was also delivered by the President of the village. At 2 p. m. there was a clambake to which the firemen did ample justice. There was another at 6 o'clock and both were first-class.

Dancing was indulged in during the afternoon and evening.

The Middletowners left at 11 p. m. and arrived at Wickham avenue at 12.10, where two electric cars were in waiting to carry them down town.

The Middletowners have only praise for the Pioneers and other Ellenville firemen and citizens generally, who extended to them every courtesy.

What's in a Name?

Everything. It is either a guarantee of the best kind, or a notice that the purchaser is buying at his own risk.

Just so with clothing. How much safer and more comfortable you feel wearing clothing sold under the name of a reputable dealer. If it is not what you want, you know where to go to get your money back.

THE CONDUCTORS' CLAMBAKE.

A Very Large Attendance Anticipated· Special Features.

The eighth annual clambake of the Ontario & Western conductors will be held at Livingston Manor, on Thursday, Aug. 16th, 1894. These clambakes in the past have been well attended, and it is this year expected that larger crowds will be there, as they have gone to much expense in securing the services of clam bakers from Coney Island. There will also be a base ball game between the Asylums of Middletown and the Genesee base ball team of Utica. The Ontario & Western will run excursion trains between Middletown and Norwich at greatly reduced rates.

A VERY SMALL FIRE.

A Blaze on Academy Avenue This Morning Very Quickly Extinguished.

At 7:10 this morning, an alarm was sounded from box 42 at the corner of Academy and Houston avenues.

A quantity of dry hay, which had been used in packing ice in the ice house of Mr. Jacob Young, No. 70 Academy avenue, had been set afire by the carelessness of a servant, and the flames quickly communicated with the frame work of the building.

Monhagens were first on the scene and Eagles followed. The fire was quickly extinguished, the damage amounting to about $25.

Another meeting will be held within a few days.

Bounty for Snakes' Heads.

The Flatbrook Valley Club, of Sussex county, has determined upon the extermination of water snakes, which it is claimed devour the trout fry. They have hit upon the plan of paying a bounty of ten cents for the heads of these reptiles, and snake hunting has become quite an industry in that locality.

Mr. Cephas Benedict, of Union, N. Y., is visiting his sister in Monticello. He is nearly 80 years old, but sets type daily without the aid of glasses in the office of the Union News. Sixty years ago he lived in Monticello and carried the mails between that village and Port Jervis, which was then a canal station with a store and a few farm houses.

Awaiting the Action of the Grand Jury.

Dennis Holbert, who was arrested in Port Jervis for stealing harness from M. S. Askew at Fair Oaks, mention of which is made elsewhere, was taken before Justice D. W. Shaw and in default of $500 bail, was sent to Goshen jail to await the action of the grand jury.

TWENTY YEARS IN BUSINESS.

A Noteworthy Anniversary in Mr. C. D. Hanford's Business Career—Some of the Reasons for His Success.

On Aug. 10th, 1874, twenty years ago today, Mr. Charles D. Hanford, the North street shoe dealer, began business in this city. He had had three years' experience in the wholesale boot and shoe trade with L. E. Schoonmaker & Co., of New York, before he bought out Ludium Corwin, who occupied the store, No. 9 West Main street, now occupied by C. S. Cooper, the confectioner.

Mr. Hanford's first customer was Alvah Bennett, of Wawayanda, father of John F. Bennett, of Bloomingburgh, who bought a pair of boots for $4.50. As showing the changes in prices that have occurred in twenty years, Mr. Hanford says that he now sells equally as good boots for $2.50.

Mr. Hanford's business increased so rapidly that in a few years he was compelled to seek larger quarters and, although it was considered by many a great risk to leave his old stand, which had been occupied as a boot and shoe store for more than forty years, Mr. Hanford determined to risk it and, in December 1880, moved to the store he now occupies, No. 43 North street, in the Everett building, which had then just been finished. The change proved a good one for his business grew so rapidly that in a few years he required more room and in 1886, an addition twenty-five feet in length was made to the store, giving it a total depth of 100 feet.

Mr. Hanford has always carried a large and varied stock, and low prices and fair and honorable dealing have secured and kept for him a fine trade.

Mr. Hanford is a firm believer in printer's ink. He is a shrewd and intelligent advertiser, keeping the public well informed of all novelties, specialties and bargains that he has to offer. During all the years that he has been in business Mr. Hanford's advertisement has been in the columns of the ARGUS and MERCURY, and it is not unreasonable to say that much of his business success is due to the intelligence and persistence with which he has used the advertising columns of the city papers.

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN.

Six Months in the Penitentiary for Bill Babcock—The Band Concert—Narrow Escape from Accident—A Victory for the Goshens—Personal Notes.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

—Bill Babcock got six months in the Albany penitentiary for his little recreation, Wednesday night. Good; a year would have been better, though.

—The attendance at the concert of the Goshen Band, last evening, was very large. Only the constant movement of the many vehicles kept them from becoming blockaded.

—A wagonload of people had a very narrow escape from being struck by the cars at the West Main street crossing, last evening, after the flagman had gone home. It might be a good idea for the railroad company to keep the flagman at the crossing, band concert nights until 9 o'clock, and thus avoid the possibility of a terrible accident and of suits for heavy damages,

—The Goshens defeated the Montgomery Club at the Driving Park, yesterday. The score by innings:

Goshen	2	5	2	4	2	3	4	1	0—23
Montgomery	3	0	0	0	2	1	2	4	0—12

—Miss Nettie Wengenroth, of Hoboken, N. J., is spending a few days in town visiting friends.

—Miss Maggie E. Sweeney, of Middletown, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Jennie McManus, has returned to her home.

—Dr. Hitchcock returned, yesterday, from a two weeks' trip to the Adirondacks.

What's the Matter With the Doctors?

A Middletown boy was hustled out of bed at 2 o'clock, this morning, to get a doctor for his sister, who was sick, and rang the night bells of six different physicians, all of whom refused to go out. Some offered the excuse that they were sick, and others were tired, and completely discouraged the boy returned home and told his sister she must do the best she could with domestic remedies, as there wasn't a doctor to be had.

Real Estate Sales.

—Gardner & Williams, real estate agents, have sold for Howard I Waterbury his new house and lot on Ridge street to the estate of Robert H. Houston, and takes in part payment one lot on Prospect street and one on Lafayette avenue. Mr. Waterbury will erect a new house on Lafayette avenue at once.

Injured While Going to the Fire.

First Assistant Engineer Chas. Higham started to the fire, this morning, in a farmer's wagon. When he jumped out his coat caught on one of the standards and threw him down. His left ankle got in the way of the wheel which passed over it at the joint, spraining and bruising very badly.

Hard Work to Raise the Money.

Newburgh's subscription to the county fair building fund amounts to $1,611 and $600 is still to be raised and no one seems to know where this balance is to come from. Of the money subscribed the Board of Trade gave $1,000 and the business men of the city the balance.

Livingston Manor White Caps at Work.

From the Insign.

Saturday night, just on the stroke of twelve, a band of white caps appeared on the streets and took charge of John Carl, who had been making a nuisance of himself. They marched him up the cattail stream a short distance and laid him gently in the mill race from which he was not taken until he promised to reform.

Largest Trout of the Season.

From the Livingston Manor Insign.

Jos. Kelley, while fishing in the Beaverkill, near Wagner's bridge, at Lew Beach, Wednesday, caught a brown California trout 23¼ inches long, weighing just six pounds. This the largest trout caught in Sullivan county this year.

Earnings of Newburgh's Electric Roads

From the Newburgh News.

The receipts of the two roads for the week of August 1st to 7th, inclusive, was as follows: Newburgh Electric Railway, $1,318.55; Newburgh and Orange Lake road, $884 40—a total on the two roads of $2,232.95 in one week. Wednesday's business on the two roads was about $500.

To Cleanse the System

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers use Syrup of Figs.

The Traction Company's New Cars.

Two new double truck cars for use on the line to Midway were received by the Traction Co., last evening. They are very handsomely finished and are numbered 6 and 7. They are considerably larger than the other open cars, there being twelve seats instead of nine and will carry one hundred persons comfortably.

The company now has thirteen cars and more are on the way.

Take it as you get it, in liquid or powder-form, only see that you get Simmons Liver Regulator. It cures Sick headache, Billousness and Constipation. You need not make a tea of it. A spoonful of the liquid, or a pinch of the powder, just before going to bed will insure refreshing sleep, and the next morning you feel as though you had a new lease on life. Sample package powder, 25 cents.

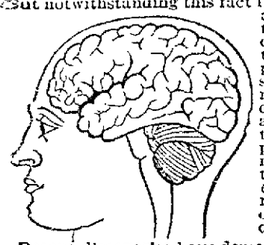
MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive is this portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.



Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

DR. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, deafness, confusion, pressure, blues, neuralgia, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

LIGHTS OF THE LEGAL WORLD.

They Will Shine In Saratoga When the American Bar Association Meets.

Barristers, briefless and otherwise—principally the latter—will talk shop at Saratoga Aug. 22 when the seventeenth annual convention of the American Bar association opens that day. The convention will be held in Convention hall, and the session will begin with an address by Judge Thomas M. Cooley of Ann Arbor, Mich., the present president of the association. The election of members and the general council and the reports of officers will follow. In the evening Hampton L. Carson of Pennsylvania will discuss "Great Dissenting Opinions," and Charles Claflin Allen of Mississippi will read a timely and interesting address on "Injunction and Organized Labor."

Moorefield Storey of Massachusetts will open the second day's session with an address, and interesting papers will be read by eminent legal luminaries. In the evening special committees on uniform state laws, expression and classification of the law, and federal code and criminal procedure will make their reports. At this session the association will again discuss the great question of uniform divorce laws.

President Cooley was born in Attica, N. Y., in 1824. He studied law and was admitted to the bar of Michigan in 1845. In 1857 he was elected compiler of the state laws and the following year became reporter of the supreme court. He organized the law department of the University of Michigan in 1859 and in 1864 was appointed justice of the supreme court of Michigan and three years later was made chief justice. In 1885 he sought re-election, but was defeated.

When the interstate commerce commission was organized, Judge Cooley's great reputation as a jurist impelled President Cleveland to appoint him a member of the commission, and his associates elected him chairman. Ill health compelled him to resign in 1891. Judge Cooley is a very unsentimental looking man, but he eloped with the girl who became his wife. Young law students who appear backward in their struggles with Blackstone, Kent and Parsons may find a grain of hope in the fact that after young Cooley had been holding down a chair in a law office for a year the attorney he was studying with told him solemnly that he would never make a lawyer if he studied law 50 years.

TO TEACH CHINESE GIRLS.

Miss Etta Montgomery's Mission Will Keep Her Ten Years In the Celestial Empire.

To minister to the spiritual and physical needs of the young girls of China is the mission Miss Etta Montgomery has chosen, and she will leave for the other side of the globe to carry out her philanthropic plans as soon as the warcloud that now overhangs China and Japan shall have passed away. Her work will be done on the island of Hainan, just off the coast of China, and if health and life are spared her she will remain at her post for 10 years. The field is a new one, and in her work Miss Montgomery will be assisted by a trained native woman. The Chinese are by no means total strangers to her, for the reason that as a member of the Rescue band she has accomplished much good in the Chinese quarter in New York city.

When she reaches her island station, a boarding school for girls will be established, and there will also be a day school. The work done will be chiefly along educational lines, but Miss Montgomery has taken a year's course of training with the International Medical Missionary society in New York and is consequently well prepared to look after the physical as well as spiritual well being of her little almond eyed charges.

Miss Montgomery was born in New York city, but has passed the most of her life in the west. For several years she was principal of one of the largest schools in Topeka and was state financial secretary of the Young Women's Christian association. Her work in China will be done under the auspices of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions.

Four or ten to ten years is the usual time that a missionary remains at his or her post, and none of them feels like returning before that time unless ordered by a physician.

BOY RULERS.

The Present Seems to Be an Age of Youth With European Royalty.

This may indeed be called the age of youth with an 8-year-old monarch on the throne of Spain, a 13-year-old queen of Holland, a 19-year-old khedive in Egypt and an 18-year-old king at Belgrade. With regard to the latter I learn from a friend who has recently been in Servia the following account of how King "Sacha" spends his day. Although rarely in bed before midnight, he is up early in the morning, and, arrayed in the undress uniform of a general, receives his court marshal, his aid-de-camp in waiting and his secretaries, who present to him their daily reports and take his instructions.

After glancing over the newspapers he receives his ministers at 10 o'clock and then doffs his uniform and dons mufti for luncheon, which is served in the small dining room of the palace, and the young king usually sits opposite his father, who does all the talking. Then conversation is generally prolonged in the smoking room after luncheon, until 2 or 3 o'clock, Milan smoking innumerable cigarettes, a habit in which he is imitated by his promising son, a drive to his suburban palace of Topchida following. It was here that his grandfather, King Milosch, was so cowardly poniarded by Karageorgevicz.

At 6 o'clock the daily council of ministers takes place, at which the king presides, and at 8 o'clock dinner is served, after which the king generally accompanies his father to the theater or to some great official ball. From this it will be gathered that he has little opportunity for reading, exercise or instruction of any kind, and the existence that he leads can only be described as the reverse of wholesome for so young a man.

Perhaps the most unwholesome feature of it all is his association with his father, who, when his son visited him at Paris a year ago, disgusted even the most cynical and hardest of the French boulevardiers by making the lad acquainted with the principal members of the demimonde.—New York Recorder.

STILL A SISTER TO HIM.

Although Annie Married Him, She Refused to Be a Wife.

Simply a sister to him.

That is what Eugene F. File says his wife has been to him since his marriage, and that alone. File is a leather finisher and foreman in the shops of McDermott & Howard in the eastern district of Brooklyn. For the reason given he has begun suit for the annulment of his marriage, which was celebrated eight years ago.

Mrs. Moore keeps a boarding house at 225 Havemeyer street. Her daughter Annie, known in the neighborhood as Miss Moore, is slender. Among the boarders is Mr. File, who now claims that he is known among Annie's friends as Mr. Moore, her brother. In short, although the marriage ceremony was performed between them Dec. 1, 1886, he declares under oath that the ceremony ended at the church door, and that since then Annie has refused to play the part of wife to him.

File says that out of a salary of $15 a week he has paid his mother-in-law $13 part of the time and $10 the other part for the board of himself and "Sister Annie."

A year or two ago, maddened by the circumstances by which he was surrounded, he left town. His wife persuaded him to return, but it was not to marital happiness, for his wife continued to be a sister to him, as before.

At last the husband-brother got one of the visiting cards of "Miss Annie Moore, 225 Havemeyer street" and paid a visit to Mr. Westlotorn and asked him for advice. Papers were prepared and served upon the daughter.

The answering affidavit was to the effect that Annie had been his wife and lived with him as such until he left her and began proceedings. She asked the court that he be forced to pay her $10 a week and $300 counsel fees in order that she might defend the action. Justice Bartlett has signed an order directing the plaintiff to show cause why he should not put up the cash.—New York Journal.

Anarchist Lega Likes Jail.

Paul Lega, the author of the attempt on Signor Crispi's life, occupies an isolated cell in the Carceri Nuovi, in Rome, and is observed day and night through an opening in the wall. He sleeps well, and when awake talks to himself. The other morning on rising he drank thirstily from his jug of water and then said aloud, looking about him and beating his breast: "Now I feel better. I am in prison, it seems. At last I am in possession of a small estate." Then he began to laugh and whistle, drumming with his fingers in time to the tune. When the jailer entered the cell, taking him his bread and soup, Lega said: "Thank you. I am better served here than in an inn, all the more because I have nothing to pay. At last I have succeeded in getting a palace and servants of my own!"—London News.

Mr. Astor Criticises His Newspaper.

Although Mr. Astor does not attempt to control the opinions of his papers, he occasionally ventures a criticism on their contents, and his comment sometimes takes another epigrammatic form. For instance, not long ago the editor of one of the Pall Mall publications—I forbear to mention which one—had a copy of the paper returned with, "Is this paper written for housemaids?" inscribed all across it in blue pencil. The editor retaliated shortly afterward by returning an article written by Mr. Aster with the simple remark that it was "declined with thanks!"—London Figaro.

THE LATEST VERSION.

An Unpublished Chapter From "Chips That Pass In the Night."

The disagreeable man was a mere shadow, yet he easily filled two seats in the electric car. His paper, which he read continually, occupied the space of another seat.

No one spoke to him, but he didn't give a hang or a cuss or a continental darn whether they did or not. He was waiting.

The bell sounded two weary strokes. Bernardine entered the car with a preoccupied air. It was all she had for she was poor. Her clothes were dusty, and she was hot. So was the day.

She reached the front of the car and dropped into a seat. It was the disagreeable man's paper's seat. He partially looked up in complete surprise. No one had ever done that before.

"Room for one more on the left, please," called the knight of the fare.

The disagreeable man did not move.

"Did you hear what he said?" asked Bernardine.

"I hear what you say," replied the disagreeable man.

"Then I say what he said," she went on.

The disagreeable man was lost in thought. He was thinking of her. "Does she mean me?" he asked himself. She was the only girl who had ever made him think.

In fact, he thought twice. His second offense was. "If it were not for the promise to my mother not to stay out after dark while she is alive, I would see this girl home." And still he waited.

The conductor came to collect the fares.

The disagreeable man paid for both. "Hadn't you better let me cash up now?" asked Bernardine, making a bluff to find her pocket.

"Yes," he answered. "Five cents, please."

Bernardine was surprised, but she was game. That was one on Bernardine.

They rode for a long time in silence. At last a Polish Jewess, widow, entered the car. Bernardine moved along to give her a seat.

"Why did you do that?" asked the disagreeable man in a huff. "When you have a thing in this world, you want to freeze to it for yourself."

"You don't understand," was the calm reply. "I have a philosophy of life."

"You're next thing to a fool," he said.

Bernardine was beginning to thaw. He was not like other men. His noble frankness pleased her. But she could not resist the temptation.

"Don't call yourself hard names," she said.

That was one on the disagreeable man. But he smiled that 4 by 6 sunburst smile of his and lapsed into silence.

Yes, he would see her home. He was sure his mother could not have lived through the hot day that was now drawing to a close. So it was all right.

He helped her from the car.

"Stop squeezing my hand," she said.

That settled it. He was sure he loved her now.

But he was politic. "Don't flatter yourself," he said. "Talk about hands! I held four queens last night."

That was one too much for Bernardine. She knew he was her Jack—the Jack of her heart.

Just then they stopped near a lamppost.

The disagreeable man noticed for the first time that her eyebrows were black and her hair of a delicate hempen gold.

Then he realized the truth. It was as if a hordle had struck him.

And so Bernardine dyed!

He pulled himself together, turned silently from her and started home to his mother.—Boston Budget.

Her One Extravagance.

Betty H. had led a hand to mouth existence for 60 years when a distant relative died and left her $20,000. The old lady received the news with the utmost calmness. She was too old and staid a body to be led into anything rash, but she said to a friend:

"I ain't goin to be reckless and extravagant, but if I live to get all that money I'm goin to have what I've wanted all my life and ain't never felt able to buy, and that is a pair of real nice side combs with yellow glass beads on 'em. I'll have them combs if I have to go as high as 50 cents for 'em."—Youth's Companion.

SHOTS HERE AND THERE

AN "ARGUS" MAN OFF DUTY AIMS AT SEVERAL SUBJECTS.

A Profitable Vocation—A Judicial Decision of Interest to Bicyclists—The Cleaning of North Street—A Very Bad Give Away—Defective Sidewalks.

That prize fighting is still a very profitable business is shown by the offer of the concern which controls Edison's kinetoscope, to give a purse of $15,000 if Corbett and Jackson will fight in private in a ten-foot ring, that the battle in all its details may be reproduced in the kinetoscope. Corbett's manager thinks $25,000 would be the right figure for such a contest.

It has been judicially decided that "bicyclists are human beings and must be respected." This deliverance was made, yesterday, by Police Justice Quigley, of Brooklyn, who fined an express driver $50 for running down a wheelman. The evidence must have shown that the bicyclist had humped himself out of all semblance of humanity or the learned P. J. would not have felt called upon to rule that, no matter how much a bicycle rider may hump himself, he does not divest himself of his humanity and "Is a mon for all o' that."

It is very evident that North street cannot be kept really clean by sweeping over its entire surface once a day. No matter how carefully the work is done, the accumulated dirt of the preceding day is so disintegrated and diffused that although the greater part is removed much is left to be ground into dust and scattered here and there by any breeze that chances to blow. The only efficient and effective plan for cleaning such a street is to keep one or two men at work on it all the time removing all dirt as soon as it appears on the street. This is the system in use in all large cities on streets which it is desired to keep scrupulously clean and the expense is little, if any greater, than that of the ineffective system of sweeping the entire street surface once a day.

The use of plate matter by editors who are too careless to look it over, and who are not scrupulous about stealing editorials, is not without its peculiar perils. I have before me an up the Erie paper, which has in its editorial column a very excellent article on "The Lazy Unemployed," with nothing to indicate that it is not original, while directly alongside of it, in the very next column, which is made up of plates, is the very same article, credited to the Carbondale Leader. It isn't often that a newspaper "gives itself so dead away."

The authorities should see to it that the sidewalk on North street near the Erie crossing, is put in proper condition at once. Where the boards and flagging join the latter is several inches lower than the former, making a jog that will delight the eye of a speculative lawyer and tempt some one who wants to make a stake out of the city to take a header. In fact, there are any number of inequalities and defective places in the sidewalks about town, which ought to be fixed, if the city wishes to keep out of the courts, and has any regard for appearances and for the comfort of pedestrians.

An Electric Car on Fire.

A quantity of waste and oil in one of the motors of car No. 1, caught fire on the up trip to Wickham avenue last night, and a great volume of smoke poured up from under the car, but the flames did not get through the floor, as they did in a similar accident in a neighboring city, a few days ago. The motorman ran the car to Wickham avenue, but could go no further, and passengers were transferred.

The passengers on the car behaved very sensibly and there was no excitement.

Additional Contributions to the Fresh Air Fund.

Rev. Mr. Evans begs to acknowledge the following further contributions to the Fresh Air Fund. $20 from Miss Katharine Smith, proceeds of the entertainment on Beattie avenue, and $5 from Mr. George L Knox. A second party of twenty children, fifteen boys and five girls will arrive in town next week.

Picnic of Northern New Jersey Grangers

Three thousand farmers and their families from the granges of Hunterdon and Sussex counties, yesterday, held their annual picnic at Washington. Addresses were made by Representative Cornish, William C. Barrick and others.

Hood's Completely Cures.

Pine Bush, N. Y., July 30, 1894.—I was troubled with dizziness and I could almost everything with me. At last, when a friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, I commenced taking it and before I had finished one bottle I was better. I have taken three bottles and am entirely cured. THE WESTERN HOT WAVE.

Delayed by a Cool Anti-Cyclone, but Sure to Reach Here.

From the New York Herald.

The Western "hot wave" made the remarkable record of 100 degrees Fahrenheit in the shade, yesterday, in Iowa, while almost as great heat was registered in the Ohio Valley.

Despite the presence of a cool anti-cyclone stretching from the lake region to the Middle Atlantic coast, the "hot wave" will move slowly toward and over this section. It will probably be severe on the Atlantic seaboard during the next two or three days.

LIVINGSTON MANOR'S IRON BRIDGE.

A Special Town Meeting Called With a View to Opposing Payment for the Structure.

A notice, signed by twenty-five taxpayers of the town of Rockland, all but two or three of them residents of the villages of Rockland and Roscoe, was served on the town clerk, Wednesday, requiring him, as provided by law, to call a special town meeting, within fifteen days, to vote on two resolutions in regard to the new iron bridge at Livingston Manor. The first resolution directs the town board to audit or pay no bills incurred on account of the construction of the bridge, piers and approaches. The second resolution directs the supervisor to bring an action in the name of the town to cancel or annul any contract or pretended contract made in the name of the town for the construction of the bridge, or to cancel or annul any town notes given on account of said bridge, or to defend any action brought to enforce the alleged liability of the town on account of such contracts or notes.

BULLVILLE.

The Hawkins-Beakes Case to be Appealed—Exchange of Pulpits—Harness Thieves—Removed to Scotchtown—Haying Finished—Personal Items.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY.

—An appeal, it is said, will be taken from the decision recently handed down by the General Term of the Supreme Court affirming the judgment of the lower courts in the matter of Moses Hawkins vs. John G. Beakes, in this village.

—The Rev. Mr. Byles, of the Methodist Church, will exchange pulpits with the Rev. Mr. Jamison, of Pine Bush, next Sunday, morning and evening. The sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered after the morning service, by Mr. Jamison.

—Several farmers about here have recently had their harness stolen from their barns. Two sets of them have been found within the limits of your city. The name of the suspected party is withheld for the present.

—Mr. Martin Joyce has removed with his family to the farm recently deeded to him by his uncle, the late Patrick Cotman, near Scotchtown. He still draws the product of several dairies for their owners to the condensery at Middletown, but we are told that he is negotiating with a party for the sale of the route, team and truck.

—Mrs. Moses Hawkins, of Goshen, visited her former home, near here, on Friday and Saturday of last week.

—The farmers have all finished haying hereabouts and an exceedingly good crop was harvested, one of the biggest we have had in some years.

—Mr. James M. Green is on the sick list and is attended by Dr. Condict, of Goshen.

—I listened to the sermon of the Rev. T. C. Beattie at Scotchtown Presbyterian church, Sunday morning. He is a very pleasing speaker, and holds the closest attention of his audience. He will remain until about Sept. 1st before he returns to his charge in New Mexico. He is filling the position made vacant by the death of his father, the late Rev. David Beattie.

—The difficulty existing between Marcus Weller and Col. R. J. Wilson, over damages done by the cows of the latter, will be tried before Justice George S. Green and a jury here, on Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. William Wallace, of Bullville, drives one of the finest farm teams in this vicinity.

—Several farmers hereabouts are engaged, this week, laying in their winter's supply of brewers' grains. They are quoted about a dollar per ton higher than the prices of former years.

PINCHED FACES.

PECULIAR TO AMERICAN WOMEN.

Some of the Causes which Appear upon Investigation.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Ask them "What can be the matter?" and the invariable answer is, "I don't know." The eyes droop, and an air of deep gloom seems to overwhelm them. Press your questions a little closer, and you find avoidance of all society, reluctance to make the slightest effort, all accompanied with a crushing sense of bearing down.

"WHY DON'T WOMEN HAVE MORE FAITH?"

Further investigation discloses irregularity of periods, dizziness and faintness at times, and perhaps leucorrhœa.

Then surely the evidence is all-sufficient.

An American woman has discovered that the cause of all this lies in a deranged and diseased uterus or womb.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most marvellous cure for this trouble ever discovered.

A purely vegetable remedy, it is at once an absolutely safe and natural cure for this crushing trouble.

It has cured thousands, and will cure you as sure as truth is truth.

Here is a letter from one of them which she wants us to publish:—

"For years I have been almost a constant sufferer from female trouble in all its dreadful forms: shooting pains all over my body, sick headache, spinal weakness, faintness, dizziness, depression, and everything that was horrid. I tried many doctors in different parts of the United States, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound has done more for me than all the doctors.

MRS. HARRIET WAMPLER

"I feel it my duty to tell you these facts that you also may be cured. My heart is full of gratitude to Mrs. Pinkham." —Mrs. Harriet Wampler, Box 944, Baraboo, Wis.
